

CERTIFICATE OF EUROPEAN AND INTERNATIONAL STUDIES

What is the 'Certificate of European and international studies (CEIS)'?

The Certificate of European and International studies is a one semester academic program. It is granted to students who have a good command of written and spoken English (a minimum of a B2 level in English is required). You will be able to follow classes on European Union and International Relations.

Students must take and pass the following classes to earn this certificate (a minimum of C is required to pass a course):

- 2 courses on the European Union and International Relations
- 1 course of French as a foreign language
- A minimum of 3 elective courses to be chosen among a variety of subjects such as economics, sociology, political sciences and much more!