

CERTIFICAT D'ÉTUDES POLITIQUES

What is the 'Certificat d'Études Politiques'?

The Certificat d'Études Politiques is a University Diploma (DU). It is granted to students who have a good command of written and spoken French (a minimum of a B2 level in French is required) and who spend a full academic year (two semesters) at Sciences Po Lille.

Students must take and pass the following classes to earn this certificate (a minimum of C is required to pass a course):

- 3 courses on political sciences and history
- 3 courses on international law and economy
- 1 course of French as a foreign language
- A minimum of 2 elective courses chosen among a variety of subjects such as economics, sociology, political sciences and much more!